

STUDY ABROAD IN JAPAN THIS SUMMER!

BUS370/ECO370 - Japan and Hong Kong: Exploring Business and Culture

ABOUT:

- Business Visits in Hong Kong and Japan such as Google, Coca-Cola and Disney
- Compare and contrast Hong Kong and Japan economically, socially and culturally.
- Understand how Japanese (Anime) has successfully spread across the globe
- Interact with Japanese university students through substantial peer-to-peer interaction at Kansai Gaidai Univ.
- Immerse yourself in Japanese culture through authentic living accommodations
- Two free days to explore other areas of Japan and Hong Kong
- June 4 – June 30, 2018
- 300-level advanced study in Elon Core Curriculum
- Elective in Economics Major or Minor
- Functional Area course in International Business Major
- Society in Elon Core Curriculum

PROFESSORS:

- Dr. Tina Das | das@elon.edu
- Dr. Mark Kurt | mkurt@elon.edu

INCLUDES:

- 4 credit hours of Elon tuition
- Admission to all academic related events including day trips to Macaw, Kyoto, Hiroshima and Nara
- 7 days Japan Rail pass
- Airport transfers in Japan and Hong Kong
- Internal airfare to/from Japan and Hong Kong
- iNext Health insurance
- 15 Breakfast buffets and two group meals

COSTS and EXCLUDES:

- $6150
- International flights from USA into Hong Kong and out of Osaka, Japan (purchased individually, students may choose to arrive early or stay late to travel with family and friends)
- Most meals
- Incidentals

APPLY TODAY!

http://elon.studioabroad.com/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgram&Program_ID=10363